Lamb Photography takes great pride in high standards of fine art photography, and will provide you with a lasting memory of your wedding day. Deirdre Lamb received a B.A. from Brooks Institute of Photography over twenty years ago, and has been satisfying customers ever since. You choose if you would like posed or a more photojournalistic style, your wedding is as unique as you are. In addition, you decide if you would like your moments captured in color, b&w, or both. We, at Lamb Studio, provide the expertise in capturing the memories, from the start to years from now when cherishing memories of your wedding day. As always, all work is always guaranteed.
